Re: Manbro Energy Corp. v. Chatterjee Advisors, LLC et al., No. 20-cv-3773 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

I write respectfully on behalf of Defendants pursuant to the Court's Order dated October 25, 2021, Dkt. 154, directing Defendants to respond to Manbro's request to file under seal Manbro's October 22, 2021 letters concerning Defendants' anticipated summary judgment and Daubert motions. See Dkt. 147–149. Defendants do not oppose the filing of Manbro's response to Defendants' summary judgment pre-motion letter on the public docket without redactions. However, Defendants respectfully request that Manbro's Daubert response letter remain under seal, and that Manbro be ordered to file a redacted version of the letter on the public docket. Defendants attach hereto as Exhibit A proposed redactions for the Court's in camera review.

Manbro's Daubert response letter contains “[i]nformation . . . that [Defendants] reasonably and in good faith believe[] contains or would disclose non-public, confidential, proprietary, financial, . . . or commercially sensitive information” (“Confidential Discovery Material”). Dkt. 51 § 1.3. Specifically, Manbro's Daubert response letter includes confidential financial information obtained from documents that Defendants have designated as Confidential Discovery Material, including confidential information regarding Haldia Petrochemicals Ltd., a non-party to the case. These documents are properly regarded as confidential and subject to sealing. See Louis Vuitton Malletier S.A. v. My Other Bag, Inc., 156 F. Supp. 3d 425, 445 n.7 (S.D.N.Y. 2016) (granting request to partially seal briefs and emphasizing “the privacy interests of the parties in preventing the public disclosure of private business figures and communications”); Louis Vuitton Malletier S.A. v. Sunny Merchandise Corp., 97 F. Supp. 3d 485, 511 (S.D.N.Y. 2015) (granting redactions of “confidential business information” and “internal business documents”). The Court has previously granted motions to seal similar confidential information, including information regarding valuations and projections. See Dkts. 94, 153. And both parties have recognized the sensitivity of valuation reports, with Manbro and Defendants designating their respective expert valuation reports “Confidential” pursuant to the Court's Protective Order. Moreover, “the presumption of public access to this information is low” where, as here, the relevant information “was exchanged through discovery pursuant to the parties' protective order." Nichols v. Noom Inc., 2021 WL 1812201, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. May 6, 2021).

Defendants recognize the standard for sealing, as cited in the Court's prior orders, see, e.g., Dkt. 96, and for that reason have proposed limited redactions of the Confidential Discovery Material contained in Manbro's Daubert response letter. Accordingly, Defendants respectfully request that the Court direct Manbro to file a redacted version of Manbro's Daubert response letter, Dkt. 149, with the redactions proposed in Exhibit A hereto.

Respectfully,

/s/ Mark A. Kirsch

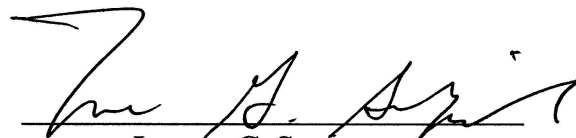

Mark A. Kirsch

cc: All Counsel of Record

For the reasons stated in this letter, Manbro's request to seal its Daubert response letter is GRANTED. Manbro's request to seal its response to Defendants' summary judgment pre-motion letter is DENIED because no party seeks to maintain that letter under seal. Manbro shall file the Daubert response letter with Defendants' redactions on the public docket by November 4, 2021.

The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to (1) unseal the letter at Dkt. No. 148, (2) maintain the letter at Dkt. No. 149 under seal with access limited to the parties listed in Appendix A of the letter at Dkt. No. 147 and (3) close the motions at Dkt. Nos. 140 and 147.

Dated: November 1, 2021
New York, New York
